

Katherine K. Hanley

Family Shelter

The Katherine K. Hanley Family Shelter accommodates up to 20 families at a time, providing temporary shelter as families move toward self-sufficiency and permanent housing.

“My dream is that someday a young girl and her mother will be leaving the shelter and the girl will ask her mother, ‘Who was Katherine Hanley?’ And her mother will answer: ‘I don’t have any idea, but she must have been someone who was part of a community that cared’.”

- Katherine K. Hanley, April 23, 2006 -

Volunteers

If you are interested in volunteering at the Katherine K. Hanley Family Shelter, please call the community coordinator at 571-522-6800

TTY 703-988-0256

Volunteer Opportunities

There are many ways you can help the families in the shelter:

Tutor a child.

Mentor a parent.

Help out at a special event.

Greet visitors at the front desk.

Help the shelter staff with administrative tasks.

Help a family move their belongings from the shelter into their new home.

To learn more about volunteer opportunities at the Katherine K. Hanley Family Shelter, contact the community coordinator at 571-522-6800; TTY 703-988-0256, or e-mail volunteer.hanley@shelterhouse.org.

A publication of the County of Fairfax, Virginia. Fairfax County is committed to a policy of nondiscrimination in all county programs, services and activities and will provide reasonable accommodations upon request. To request this information in an alternate format, call 703-324-5870; TTY 703-222-9452.

August 2007